

Abdul Quadir Fazlani who had done yeomen service for the community and country was honored with guiding star award by TCN at Mumbai.

“The list included Abdul Quadir Fazlani of Mumbai who had spearheaded an education programme in Mumbai. Setting up primary schools, teacher’s training schools and other vocational centres, Fazlani now runs two trusts which govern these educational institutions. “There is only one word-Education, which can change the scenario for Muslims. I urge everyone here present to strive hard for upliftment of education level in the society,” said Fazlani.”
